

Yeovil Town FC – Supporter Alliance

We recognise the Organisation Name as a properly constituted group presenting some fans of YRFC.

Organisation Name are therefore invited to form part of the Supporters Alliance.

Organisation Name agree to work with YRFC and other recognised organisations within the Alliance to:

- To bring together all properly constituted groups presenting fans of YRFC to provide a unified voice
- To be YRFC's primary route for identifying fan views.
- To improve the relationship between Yeovil Town FC and supporters
- To achieve growth of Yeovil Town FC in Unity with supporters
- To give all member groups a formal communication route with the YRFC Board

Rules of the Alliance

1. All Supporter Groups taking part in the Alliance shall be properly constituted groups who upon request shall provide YRFC with audited accounts and articles of association.
2. To meet as a group at least twice a year at times at venues specified by YRFC but in agreement with the Alliance Chairperson.
3. A maximum two persons per member organisation may attend Alliance meetings, although only one person per organisation may vote. YRFC may have more than two attendees in order to better advise and consult the meeting.
4. At least one person representing the views of the YRFC Board shall be present at each Alliance meeting. Usually this will be the YRFC Chairman and/or Supporter Director.
5. If a person is a member of more than one Supporter group, they may only vote on behalf of the primary group they represent.
6. If a vote is required during an Alliance meeting to reach a decision on a matter a minimum number of three organisations must be present with YRFC being one of the three.
7. A Chairperson shall be elected no later than 1 June each year via a majority vote of an Alliance meeting with such a vote not occurring before 31 May each year.
8. The Chairperson shall be from an Alliance group, but not YRFC.

9. Outside of Alliance meetings the Chairperson make represent the views of the Alliance where a decision is needed before the next Alliance meeting occurs.
10. All Supporter groups who are members of the Alliance shall be treated equally in respect of access to and use of land and building owned by the club.
11. All Supporter groups given consent to operate on club property shall do so only in designated areas and shall operate in a respectful way (including to fans who are not members of their organisation).
12. Groups may leave the alliance by giving one month's written notice at any time.
13. Groups can be required to leave the alliance if a majority of other member groups (so long as that majority includes YTFC) vote in favour of such a motion.
14. YTFC agrees to give due consideration to the views and majority wishes of the Supporter Alliance but it should be noted that majority votes by the alliance are advisory and not binding on YTFC.
15. It is respected that Supporter groups may not always be supportive of the Board of YTFC and may outside of the Alliance reflect differing views (so long as those views are not portrayed to be the official view of the Supporter Alliance).

If it is agreed that these rules may be varied by way of a majority vote by the Alliance members (so long as that majority includes YTFC)
